“I NEVER KNEW OF A MORNING IN AFRICA
WHEN I WOKE UP & WAS NOT HAPPY”

Ernest Hemingway

Ernest Hemingway

A rustic, two-story living room with a stone fireplace, leather sofa, and mounted deer heads. The room is warmly lit, featuring a large stone fireplace with a fire burning inside. A large leather sofa is positioned in the foreground, with a rifle and binoculars resting on it. The walls are adorned with mounted deer heads and framed pictures. The ceiling is made of dark wood beams, and the overall atmosphere is cozy and adventurous.

Caprivi Camps

Ivory Luxury Camp

The Kwando River system is noted for its wildlife, and it's the location of Ivory Camp, offering five canvas-lined chalets with en-suite bathrooms.

As at the other camps, a large dining area, bar and firepit offer a warm and friendly place for evening gatherings.

Sitatunga Camp

Sitatunga Camp is situated in the Zambezi and Kavango East regions, extending along the Caprivi Strip.

It is bounded by the Okavango River to the west and the Kwando River to the east. Angola lies to the north and Botswana to the south.

Main Lodge

Verdwaal Lodge

With over 100,000 acres of pristine wilderness and 500 miles of roads, Verdwaal Hunting Lodge delivers an unrivaled hunting experience in central Namibia. Its diverse terrain, featuring open plains, bushveld, and rocky outcrops, offers the ideal backdrop for exceptional trophy hunting.

The lodge hosts an impressive range of wildlife, including all native Namibian antelope species such as kudu, gemsbok, roan, and sable. For those seeking greater challenges, predators like cheetah, hyena, and leopard roam the land, promising an unforgettable big game adventure.

Buitepos Lodge

Outpost is set on a vast 40,000-acre property at the crossroads of Namibia, Botswana, and South Africa, in the heart of the iconic Kalahari Desert.

This remote location offers visitors an unmatched connection to Africa's raw beauty and breathtaking wilderness.
